

Parlour show

Monthly there is a Parlour Show that exhibits flowers, plants, floral arrangements, vegetables in pre-defined categories. It is either a judged or unjudged show. The Parlour show committee determine if the show is a judged or an unjudged show. Judging is done by certified judges following the Standards for Flower Shows. People's Choice award is chosen each meeting by the membership voting for their "best in show choice". The Parlour Show committee determines the monthly categories, organize the monthly show and purchase prizes or provide a trophy for the category indicated that month.
